

Murder Mystery

I knew from the moment the police arrived that they would not believe the truth. My parents and everyone else claimed that Mr Jones died of natural causes, even though the facts pointed towards the obvious truth - he was murdered in his sleep...

Write 5 reasons why you believe that the man was murdered – what clues do you have?

It was up to us to solve this murder. X, Y and I began to plan how we could track down our man...

How do you and your friends go about solving this?

Everything was going well. We had pieced together all the evidence and then, when we were least expecting it, my bedroom door crashed open...

Describe what happens, how you escape, and how you feel.

Our man was trapped. We had all the clues in place. Now we had to catch him before he did it again...

How do you catch the murderer?
