

Monday 14th June was predicted to be the hottest day of the year so far.

With temperatures likely to reach 28°C, we decided that the boys and staff needed a something to help us stay cool!

Parravanis kindly rode to our rescue and served us all delicious ice-cream.

What a treat!

