National Bank Holiday Platinum Jubilee 2022

Dear Parent/ Carer,

You will be aware that this year there is a national bank holiday planned to commemorate the Platinum Jubilee, scheduled for Friday 3rd June. For most schools this falls within their planned half term break and so the DfE (Department for Education) have agreed that schools are permitted to take an additional day holiday on any other nominated day this Academic year.

After due consideration it has been decided that this additional day holiday will be taken at the end of the school year so that the last day of term will now be Thursday, 28th July 2021 not Friday 29th July 2022. We hope that this will create the least disruption to parents working patterns because Bramfield House School is breaking up for the summer slightly later than Local Authority schools anyway.

Therefore, the last today of term will be Thursday July 28th 2022.

Sincerely,

Davina Bell

Headteacher
